Finding my prior proposal unworkable (among other things, right up against Memorial Day weekend - who knew?), I would like to confirm a meeting in Seattle for the following week: May 28-29. I have already cleared these dates with gov't folks and believe this works with Bob. Craig/Bob - can you please confirm these dates work for you and or your clients?

As before, I'd like to plan for an internal govts meeting on the first morning, May 28, and then begin meeting all together after noon, continuing late if necessary. Friday morning can be reserved for follow-up from Thursday and/or focus on the SOW and RADs.

For now, please confirm availability for these dates.

Thanks.

Gail/Bob/Craig:

First, let me express my appreciation for the timely deliveries this week of both the tolling agreement extension and the draft technical documents. Now that we have bought ourselves a bit of breathing room and made some apparent technical progress, we need to focus on bringing this process to a close.

Toward that end, I would like to suggest a final meeting in Seattle, to be held on May 21-22. Would that / could that work for everyone? For this meeting, we will be joined by Mike Zevenbergen of the DOJ/EES office here in Seattle, pinch hitting for Sarah who will be away at trial. Between now and then, we have much to do, including reviewing the draft technical docs and reviewing the draft CD and SOW versions that I sent around most recently.

For now, please confirm your ability to make a meeting May 21-22 (or otherwise).

Thanks.,
